- Occurs at the beginning of the cycle. Foundation for the whole process.
- Lets you know what's expected and how your performance will be assessed.
- Gives you the opportunity to provide input about how to perform your job.
- Helps you stay on track and remain clear on changing priorities throughout the cycle.
- Positions you for success; eliminates surprises.
- Focuses on the results of your work.
- Aligns the institutional priorities throughout the organization so that we're all working toward the same end.

How Are Objectives Developed?

Guidelines for Writing Performance Objectives

Think About:

- How to translate tasks into results and differentiate between a task and the expected result(s) of the effort.
- The specific results you will be held accountable for.
- Why are you doing this? How will you know if your goal has been achieved?
- Who receives the service you provide?
- What do the recipients expect in terms of:
 - quality (90% very good or excellent on evaluations),
 - quantity (increase student enrollment by 5% over the previous year)
 - timeliness (resolve help desk tickets within 24 hours)?
- The SMART Criteria.

Manager communicates to employee job objectives for performance cycle

- Identify a minimum of 3 objectives (recommend no more than 5)
- Align job objectives to department objectives and foundational themes
- Ensure objectives meet S.M.A.R.T. criteria (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, and Time-Bound)
- Link objectives/key responsibilities to the job. Note: If 2 or more employees perform the same job, then objectives & responsibilities must be the same
- Specify a weighting for each objective/key responsibility

 - Provide a timeline within performance review period for progress
 - Ensure employee is compliant in all University required training. Ask each employee to attach a copy of their training profile.

Writing Comments

Note: If you are a new manager or you have new direct reports, you should ask your employees for a copy of their RED Form from last year.

- Consult your performance log.
- Ensure that comments include specific, factual and descriptive examples that are job-related and behaviorally written.
- Make sure comments match the rating.
- Strive for clarity.
- Focus on accomplishments and results produced.
- Identify strengths and development areas.

Five-Point Rating Scale

Comments are required for each rating except PW

| EP = Exceptional Performance | Performance consistently and significantly exceeds departmental and position expectations |
|--|---|
| PW+ = Performs Well Plus | Performs well in all aspects of the job, exceeds expectations in a few areas |
| PW = Performs Well (no written rationale required) | Performance consistently meets expectations and job requirements |
| NI = Needs Improvement | Performance consistently does not meet expectations and improvement is required. |
| DNM – Does not meet expectations | Performance does not meet expectations |

Completing Your Self Assessment

- Seek agreement from your supervisor on the objectives you will assess in your evaluation.
- Write your self-assessment in a Word document.
- Be as honest and factual as possible.
- List all of your accomplishments from the year; note reasons for set-backs.
- Include enough specific details so that your manager understands your contributions.
- Highlight changes in priorities that arose during the cycle.
- Use the RED form to complete your self-assessment (copy and paste from the Word document into the Formstack RED Form)
- Send self-assessment to your manager prior to your performance discussion meeting.
- Expect your manager to add comments accordingly.
- Understand that your supervisor has final say.

Self-Assessment Samples

- I have been attending departmental meetings with the goal of making suggestions to improve work processes, and one of my suggestions, xxxxxxxx, resulted in a change in procedures that has saved the department over $2,000 this year alone.
- Despite the reduced headcount in our department, I have completed my database project on time and $1,000 under budget. As a result, students can now access their information in two clicks instead of four and the information is updated immediately instead of every 24 hours.
- During the past year, I documented 5 of 7 work processes that were used to train new student workers hired by the department. The documentation resulted in reduced time spent to train the student workers and now serve as desk procedures.

Participating in the Performance Discussion

- Refer back to your list of accomplishments.
- Complete your Self-Assessment before the meeting. Be objective about the things you did well and the areas where you could have done better.
- Be prepared to discuss your Self-Assessment during the meeting with your manager.
- Discuss areas you would like to develop and/or career interests you may have.
- Be open to feedback and ask questions if you don't understand something.

Tips for Conducting Virtual Feedback Meetings

- Supervisors should send to their direct reports, via email, the SAMPLE RED form complete with their narrative comments and ratings at least 24 hours before the scheduled meeting.
- Plan on each meeting to last 45-60 minutes.
- Conduct the meeting in-person, via TEAMS, or WebEx Meetings.
- Use your webcam for these meetings – it is important that supervisors and direct reports see each other.
- Discuss the present year's performance and toward the end of the meeting discuss next year's goals.

Tips for Conducting your Feedback Meetings

- Focus on the priorities.
- Describe specific situations or behavior.
- Focus on the work; relate feedback to objectives and expectations.
- Balance positive and constructive statements.
- Try to see things from the employee's perspective; share your own experiences.
- Present corrective feedback in positive, actionable way.
- Ensure that the employee understands by asking them to summarize.
- Follow up to monitor improvements and set follow up dates.

During the past fiscal year, a new training progra xxxx, was developed in anticipation of the University roll out of the program. For those programs facilitated by the Associate Director of Training and Development, the 90% very good/excellent rating was maintained.

As part of the delivery of the training programs, I respond daily to email and phone inquiries from learners regarding Canvas, I troubleshoot issues with Canvas when they arise, and respond to inquiries regarding th completion status of learners' mandatory training requirements.

Objective #2 - Training Record Administration

With the move to more online training, there has been an increase in the amount of time devoted to training record administration. As stated in objective #1, the training administration in support of the delivery of the training programs has doubled in work due to the dual structure (in-person and webinar formats) that we have adopted.

Sincerely,

St. John's University Human Resources

Hello Lisa Goldrick,

If changes need to be made to objectives submitted by Eileen, please inform them and you can change them in your Formstack Workspace.

Objective/Key Responsibility #1* at a weighting of 50:

Employee's Self-Assessment:

Objective #1 – Design and Delivery of Training Programs - From June 1, 2022, to May 31, 2023, a total of xxxx faculty, adjuncts, administrators, staff, per diems and students received training in the programs sponsored by Human Resources. Of the xxxx trained, xxx completed the training in Canvas, xxx completed the online Information Technology training, and the remaining were trained through a combination of in-person and webinar attendance. Slightly more people attended the programs via the webinar format, supporting the need to continue to offer training via webinar. During the past fiscal year, a new training program, xxxx, was developed in anticipation of the University roll out of the program. For those programs facilitated by the Associate Director of Training and Development, the 90% very good/excellent rating was maintained.

As part of the delivery of the training programs, I respond daily to email and phone inquiries from learners regarding Canvas, I troubleshoot issues with Canvas when they arise, and respond to inquiries regarding the completion status of learners' mandatory training requirements.

Objective #2 - Training Record Administration

With the move to more online training, there has been an increase in the amount of time devoted to training record administration. As stated in objective #1, the training administration in support of the delivery of the training programs has doubled in work due to the dual structure (in-person and webinar formats) that we have adopted.

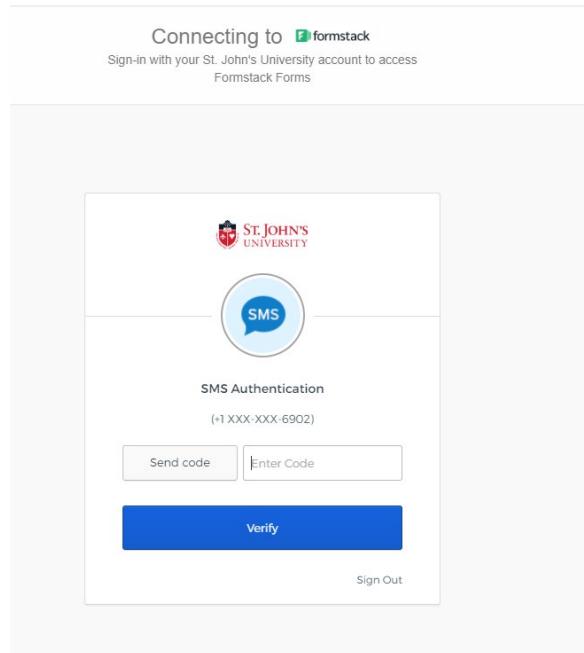

Sincerely,
St. John's University Human Resources
